

What future do you want for Lions?

For our Organization grow and strengthen, we need true, charismatic, competent, dedicated and, above all, ethical leaders, who add and inspire confidence.

Reflects:

A true, recognized leader, would need to claim that he is the "official candidate" and "single candidate" to get some votes, when there are other regularly registered candidates, and the LCI Legal Department advises that there is no "official candidate", and that the Organization is not involved with campaigns? (David Kingsbury, LCI Legal Division Manager)

Would an ethical and democratic leader say that he accepts to be a candidate since he will have his election guaranteed, regardless of the will of the Lions? So why elections?

Would a charismatic leader need to claim that he has "100% support" for someone believe him? Would they need to say this at an International Board meeting, even if it's not true, misleading our leaders? Would they need to offend and disrespect PID Rosane, her lionistic history, and her supporters? (ID Rodolfo Espinal)

A "leader" who renounces his candidacy due to a serious health problem, without a cure, and then returns (can he?), is he thinking about the Organization? Will he be able to fulfill his mission? Is his team worried about this? Is there the risk of another vacancy on the Board again?

This is the unfortunate situation of this International Convention: Misuse of Leader Images. Conchavos. Lies. Pressures. Lack of ethics, lack of transparency, lack of respect for lions. Is this Lions?

You are a volunteer. You pay to volunteer. What kind of leadership do you want for your Organization?

See the attached material. Know PID Rosane's visits to Lions in Area 3 and around the world. She has strong support in other countries as well. Undisputed support of the lionistic base. THIS is Authentic Leadership.

Dear Past Council Chairperson Rigo,

As I'm sure you understand, my response is restricted to matters governed under the International Constitution and By-Laws and other governing documents of the association. As there is no "official candidate" or "sole candidate" recognized by the association, I am only able to confirm that all certified candidates are permitted to run for office, and may be selected by certified delegates in attendance at an international convention.

Additionally, as required in the International By-Laws, Article II, Section 6, the election of all international officers shall require a plurality vote in order to be elected. As provided in policy, no candidate has a "guaranteed election", and all certified candidates are required to obtain a plurality of votes.

As I'm sure you are aware, there are no guidelines for third vice president candidates on how they choose to campaign, and the association is not involved in local campaigns of any endorsed or certified candidates. However, should the International Board of Directors determine additional guidance be provided to candidates to ensure compliance with the association's Code of Ethics, I trust the board will take action as necessary.

Kindest regards,
 David Kingsbury
